Axel Krogvig new Acting CEO for Norsk Tipping

The Board of Directors of Norsk Tipping has appointed Axel Krogvig as the Company's new Acting Chief Executive Officer. He takes up the position with immediate effect.

"The Board is extremely pleased that Axel Krogvig has accepted the position as Acting CEO. Mr. Krogvig has broad experience in leading major companies, and there is no doubt that Norsk Tipping will benefit greatly from his long experience and expertise," said the Chairman of the Board of Directors Sigmund Thue.

"I take up the position with a sense of humility. Norsk Tipping is a very modern and well-run company, and a spearhead for domestic Norwegian companies," says Acting CEO Axel Krogvig.

Axel Krogvig comes from his position as Special Advisor in Nortura BA, where he was also CEO from 2000 and until the autumn of 2007. He is 57 years old and has three grown up children. He is originally from Ringsaker in Hedmark.
